

CULMINATING TASK: COMBINING LOTS

An antique map was found in the attic of a local courthouse. It shows some measurements from a local farm that was divided into 5 parts. Some of the measurements have faded with age, so you must find the remaining measurements, as well as calculate the total area and perimeter of the outside of the property. All lengths are measured in miles.

